CEO Message

"As an Engineer & Entrepreneur, I am confident in Pakistan's mineral and resource potential. Like many other things, Pakistan is also blessed with plentiful salt minerals. As a result, Caspara Salts was launched as an initiative to manufacture Pink Rock salt products to contribute to our beloved homeland's export potential and significantly boost the economy.

We have a dedicated team producing pink salt products since the start to ensure that only the highest quality is delivered to you. Our Professional Designers, Salt Experts, and Labor are constantly developing innovative techniques for our production optimization. We are overhauling our lines of business to make sure they are poised to leverage emerging trends in major markets. Transportation, electronics, agri-nutrients medical technologies, packaging, and construction are just a few examples. This transformation strives to make us more agile cost-effective, and closely connected to our client's needs and objectives.

You will also learn about our loyalty to the communities where we live and work, as well as how we protect and sustain the environment, our ground breaking technology, and innovation that helps us build a better future, the high-quality products we offer our customers."

Looking forward to having you onboard
