SALT LAMPS

The stress-relieving properties of Himalayan salt lamps are second to none. They clean the air and make you feel better right away. You would want to utilize them as a nightlight. The lamp will comfort you to a dreamless sleep if you are having trouble sleeping. The amber-colored light is not just for your bedroom, though. It will also look good in your office. You can also use it when you are working out and need something to keep you focused.

Benefits:

Natural Ionizer: When warmed, Himalayan rock salt releases negative ions that neutralize the air and eradicate bacteria and dust particles

Air Purifier: Cleans the air by removing toxic particles from the air

Stress Reliever: The ions released by salt lamps are believed to produce biochemical reactions that cause human bodies to increase serotonin helping to alleviate depression, boost energy, and relieve stress.

Health Friendly: The lamps help regulate sleep and reduce symptoms of asthma and allergies.

Natural Shape

This tremendous natural salt lamp is made of large and heavy rocks of pink Himalayan mineral salt that is magnificent and beneficial to your health. This lovely genuine lamp shines with a beautiful warm comforting glow for a pleasant, relaxing ambiance and is presented on a wooden platform.

USB Lamps

Caspara Salts' USB salt lamps are just a little distinctive from the rest. The way you can light it up is such a remarkable feature. It competes with the modern lamp's USB electric wire, rather than relying on the plug and cord. The multicolored led lights illuminate the little air purifying salt lamp, negating the need for a conventional bulb. USB salt lamps have grown popular as one of the most fabulous salt lamps because of their vibrant colors and versatility. The fact that it is in such high demand assures its usefulness.

Salt Crockery

We also carve visually pleasing plates from the Pink Himalayan Salt, which can be used as cutting boards or cooking stones once preheated. These solid salt plates and bricks are stunning natural items that are all different in tint, impurities, and crevices. Due to expansion and contraction, these plates may shrink over time and finally shatter and fracture.

The Himalayan Crockery products provide a stunning presentation on your dining table. Himalayan salt blocks, sometimes referred to as Himalayan cooking plates are fun to serve food. Having the most complementary kitchen Salt Crockery will make preparing a meal so much enjoyable. Small squares, big rectangular Blocks, round plates, and salt bowls are just a few of the sizes and forms available in Himalayan salt Blocks, plates, and bowls.

Bath Salts

Caspara Salt delivers Himalayan bath soaps, salt balls, deo sticks, and crystal salt grains at wholesale prices. We also offer wholesale Himalayan crystal salt chunks from the Khewra Salt Mines, which is one of the world's largest salt mines in the world.

Add some Pink Himalayan Bath Salt to your bath water and wait for the magic to happen. When pink bath salt is dissolved in water, it becomes an effective antiseptic that aids in the removal of toxic chemicals from your skin and tissues. For an instantly refreshing and purifying effect, apply a deodorant stick. Choose these natural, chemical-free Himalayan Bath Salt products from Caspara Salts and start living a healthier lifestyle.

Edible Salts

Himalayan salt is the finest, organic, unfiltered, and pollutant-free salt on the planet. It contains up to 84 essential minerals and components for your health. It boosts hydration, enhances energy, and maintains blood pressure by balancing the pH of the body.

When it comes to edible salt, you should be vigilant because table salt can damage your health. On the other hand, Himalayan salt is free of pathogens and anti-caking compounds, making it a healthier option for routine intake.

Specifications:

- ✔ Crystal salt granules Size ranges from 0.1 mm to 5 mm.
- ✔ Powder and Extra Fine Size ranges from 50 to 80 mesh.
- ✔ Available in perfectly sealed packaging
- ✔ Salt Quality tested to ensure a healthy intake
- ✔ It contains 84 beneficial minerals for health
